Bitter Pill

Silent Civilian

How can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wasted
How can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wastedDigest this bitter pill, I close my eyes
Cold sweats, I feel the chill inside
I decend into the abyss of a sin
Recalled decisions that I made within
This sense of guilt
Building up deep inside
Respect of the man
I once knew slowly diesHow can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wasted
How can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wastedConfined to sleepless nights
My past will haunt (will haunt, will haunt)
My constant shadow fights, I fall
As time stands still
Memories just stay alive
My head hangs low
From the lack of disguise
The weakness slowly
Dismembers my soul
Can't find exactly
Where I lost controlHow can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wasted
How can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wastedHow can I forget the things that I,
I still regret, I'm wasted
How can I forget the things that I,
I still regret
