Where my heart wants
Lyrics and music by Moran Levi

Telling you goodbye was not an easy thing to do
Leaving all behind
For something I have never knew

I will be fine,
And I will find
The place I fit
walk on the line
to where I could shine
And be complete

Where my heart wants
Wherever I could grab the chance
Where my heart wants
Wherever I could make the change
Where my heart wants
Wherever I could reach as high
As high the highest he wants

Crossing lands and oceans
Having nothing but belief led by my devotion
To a dream I can achieve

I will be fine,
And I will find
The place I fit
walk on the line
to where I could shine
And be complete

Where my heart wants
Wherever I could grab the chance
Where my heart wants
Wherever I could make the change

Where my heart wants
Wherever I could reach as high
As high the highest he wants

As far as I can be
I'll always think of you
Where I am from and what I have brought with me
