

Call Me

The Rembrandts

We both know you and I have been through harder times
But now your silence seems a very different kind
It feels like I've been dyin'
Just to hear your voice again
Call me, call me, can't you hear me cryin'?
Call me, call me, please don't leave me hangin' on
So maybe you were right and maybe I've been wrong
Why did I have to go and wait it out so long?
But I didn't mean to hurt you
If you could only feel my pain
Call me, call me, can't you hear me cryin'?
Call me, call me, please don't leave me hangin' on
Now I can't speak for you but I wish you'd talk to me
How difficult can this one conversation be?
Call me, call me, can't you hear me cryin'?
Call me, call me, please don't leave me hangin' on
Call me, call me, can't you hear me cryin'?
Call me, call me, please don't leave me hangin' on
Call me, call me, call me, call me
Call me, call me, call me, call me
Call me, call me, call me, call me
