

Birthday

Meredith Brooks

When's your birthday? What's your middle name?
Who's you're hero?
What's your favorite flavor ice-cream?
Can you tell me, tell me this Are you Aries?
Are you on the cusp of cancer?
Gonna get to know you better
What? No, it's not a quiz Well, you can trust me now
We'll dig a little deeper
Let's trade numbers, let's trade beepers
I can't find you any place Hey, why are you looking at your watch?
We haven't had desert
It's early just 8:30, only our first date I wanna know do you love me yet?
Do you feel the same? Are you everything?
I wanna know, isn't true love great?
Come on tell me, when's your birthday? Where ya going? Why ya leavin'?
After all we've been through
Can't you think of me, I'll think of you
Don't throw it all away I'll quit my job, I'll have you're children
You'll work hard, I'll spend your millions
Hey, no pressure, you've got time
Just don't make me wait I wanna know, do you believe in fate?
When you're moving in, be my everything
I wanna know, we are for always
Come on tell me, when's your birthday?
When's your birthday? And it isn't just a oxytocin high
I never felt this way about any other guy before
I ain't getting any younger
I ain't fooling anymore I wanna know, do you love me yet?
I wanna wear your ring, be your everything
I wanna know, isn't true love great?
Come on tell me, come on tell me I wanna know, do you believe in fate?
Do you feel the same? Be my everything
I wanna know, isn't true love great?
Come on tell me, when's your birthday?
