He's Got Magic

Fox

He's got magic
magic in his eyesMagic in his smile on his lips
in his fingertips.
He can conjure a magic tale turn a goldfish into a whale He's got style enough to make a rainbow blush Be poetic without a line make you drunk without any wine Paint a picture inside your mind without a brush.He's got magic magic in his eyesMagic in his smile on his lips
in his fingertips
He's got magic
magic in his soulMagic from his head to his toesMake you lose yourself control.
He can frighten away a tear with a word that you'll never hear Inflating your lovin' heart to twice its size Make you float on heaven's clouds as you look Down above the crowds while holdin' you thightly
With his bedroom eyes.
He's got magic
magic in his eyes . . .
