sulking and bulking a half sulking a laugh crash test
grief leaf thief briefly turned chieftan the tapwaters on the waters off the waters leaking so this is blue my terms the memoir obligation in the boodoir crystalize impurities to zero on the autograph dirty characters sponges hunches hurling murder abundant lunches with the city suppers punching (hurdling) tomorrow since I sit in consequence merging brings to bubble up along the edges of precious child fantasy broken hi, my name is hazardous tobaccanist im on the brink im purgin dirt and spit my lung in the sink as for the product well its drenched in a barren backward wasteland of shimmering moral tension and venturing the plaza pleasant i saw it all from pixie dust to crepid pins and voodoo dolls and 99 dreams later the shooting gallery wall its like not a wave crash similar to last or next heckle me not already doctored by regrets gray rain beligerant fragments bomb acid ushering the pixels till the image burned classic bliss in a barrel and motivation in a basket ima cast it out to sea and wait for my comma to grasp it I left my crutch over the rainbow with my riches and I know the rat race of the bad taste once his grimace cringes an iron butterfly will float if given good condition but im still fisihing the same worm from the same faulty posistion prosperity im tryin to walk alone and miss the bliss inide the accidental meeting of the pencil and the ceiling and the censures started meeting breathing at a rappid calibur at still a silent understudy funny how the opposite will throttle and the different stroke and model to the prison is innacurate portrayal of an addequate betrayal of a all picket fences like chain gangs linked digging trenches to candy land image factory sold ah I wanna be an astronaut I got the merits and heart and I bought a starship with hard earned money from one hour selling dreams to dummies when they my lord) vibrate through the fog and then some dragging bent circuits on a short leash like organ grinder primates dancing for bread crumbs well did you touch that slugger banging on the table with an old tin cup thin luck I can raise the dead when racing for milk and bread but I got big big plans i ride a big boat with a big ol motor and I aint really that big on helping you turn your leaf over (lets sing) bring out your dead a quarter pile sky high (lets see) what if your miserable saw the plant
