

We Stitch These Wounds

Black Veil Brides

You kissed the lips of evil,
Two months, it's all the same,
Beg for this man's approval, like all the rest you die in vain, Sit down this won't take long, now,
Off my chest these lyrics came,
Your words they eat right through me,
Heartbreak's your favorite pain, The tears we've cried,
This love has died,
You're by yourself here tonight,
It's what we hide with every lie,
Your by yourself here tonight, I'll think of it every time I touch you,
Or every time I hear his name,
I'll never let my fucking walls down, like all the rest you are to blame, sit down this wont take long now,
Off my chest these lyrics came,
Your words they eat right through me,
Heartbreak's your favorite pain, The tears we've cried,
This love has died,
You're by yourself here tonight,
It's what we hide with every lie,
Your by yourself here tonight, LIAR (x3) (optional growl) The tears we've cried,
I'm by your side,
You're by yourself here tonight,
It's what we hide with every lie,
Your by yourself here tonight, (x2) LIAR (x3) Say Goodbye.
