

Cruel Gray City

Sweating Honey

Cruel Grey City

You can really learn a lot from pain
the more youâ€™re willing to lose.
But youâ€™d rather be stupid than to hop that kinda train or hang yourself from that noose.
Living ainâ€™t easy with me hanging around.
Iâ€™ll find me a rail southbound.

Goodnight my cruel grey city.
Goodnight my sleepless town.
Goodnight my cruel grey city.
I will lay you down.

You could learn a lot from the lines on my face.
The tattoos you turn your head from.
One mans waste is another mans supper.
Youâ€™re the garbage I eat my meals from.
Living ainâ€™t east with you hanging around.
You wish I would find a new town.

Goodnight my cruel grey city.
Goodnight my sleepless town.
Goodnight my cruel grey city.
I will lay you down.
Yes I will lay you down.
