

Last Time

Moderat

When I was dead asleep
Behind
Towering wallsThey built a world outside
And I
Missed the wake-up callMy stony breath crawled
To glory heavens be
There was a sea of sound
But it was silence
That stole my sleepWhen I was dead asleep
Behind
Towering wallsThey built a world outside
Missed the wake-up callWhen I break cripple legs
Through long winding streets
Fill me with suffering
And the people
Would see right through me
