

Put You Down In My Will (Parody of "Push")

ApologetiX

I said I dont know if he's ever been good enough
I'm a little disgusted, yet I think of a plan for saving men, They dont know, but the devil plays really rough, but if man would trust me, I still got something left to give,
and it's a little bitty baby, well this ain't over, no not yet.
Not while I still need you around, you dont know me, but I saved you. Yea I push you real good. I wanna put your name down in my will, in my will,
I wanna give you a crown, and I will, and I will.
I wanna save your whole planet, yea I wanna save your whole planet, yea yea and I will, I will I said I don't know why you ever would die for me When I'm a criminal suspect, and the things I do are gonna hurt you.
I dont know why you didnt just stay up there, you made a plan to redeem me, when my faith wasn't even worth a dime.
cause I'm a little unworthy, well don't just stand there, send my king to me, I've been waiting all along for you, it's in Romans 5 verse 8, First John fourteen explains it all I wanna put your name down in my will, in my will,
I wanna give you a crown, and I will, and I will.
I wanna save your whole planet, yea, I wanna save your whole planet, yea yea and I will, no you don't know Jehovah, just play with me, and I'll cover your heartache,
may sound crazy, baby, just trust in me baby, I'll rush to save you.
