

To the Shore

The Telescopes

Washed me down
Just slipped a day or so you
Watered me down,
Led all this safety, gently
To my eyes
To my eyes
For the good of my own health
I may go blind
They always see
They always take me
To the shore
To the shore
Just for a while
Is turning into days just like it will
When all awhile
It's turning from surrender
To surprise
Into my eyes
For the good of my own health
I may go blind
They always see
They always
Take me
Wishing to find
When we are drifting to the shore
To the shore
To the shore
