

Throw Shade

CRUISR

When you meet your maker
Tell em I already know
It's just an undertaker
When you sell your soul And don't you get me started
I don't believe a word you say
She's sayin' she's an artist
I thought you were a hurricane? You're dead to me
Rest in peace
You can let me be If you wanna throw shade
I'm gonna throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never, see you never Throw shade
Unless I throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never, see you never I'll see you never I'll see you never
Yeah, see you never I know you're nothing but an enemy
And you be trippin' on a brand new brag
You found your fake identity
And I go, I go back Spend your money on a Mai Tai Then you're sipping on a french rosÃ©
I been saving for a Citywide
I give it all away You're dead to me
R.I.P.
You can let me be If you wanna throw shade
I'm gonna throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never, see you never Throw shade
Unless I throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never Good riddance
I mean I'm really gonna miss you though
Good riddance
I mean it's oh so sad to see you go If you wanna throw shade
I'm gonna throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you (see you)
I'll see you (see you)
I'll see you never Throw shade

Unless I throw you away, no
If you wanna throw shade
Well honey I'll see you never, see you never I'll see you never
