

(Long) Gone

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

Now you can keep whatever you want to, baby
And take whatever you need
Sweep up the pieces of this broken love
As a token to remember me Don't cry, baby, you did nothin' wrong
Don't ask why this stone keeps rollin'
It's just goin', goin', goin'
Long gone But you can think whatever you want to, baby
Believe what you wanna believe
'Cause deep in my heart I've loved you
But my heart's like a tumbleweed Don't cry, baby, 'cause you did nothin' wrong
Don't ask why this stone keeps rollin'
It's just goin', goin', goin'
Long gone, long gone Well, I never meant to hurt you
Never wanted to desert you
But that restless wind starts blowin'
I can't help goin', oh yeah Yeah, you can keep whatever you want to, baby
Take whatever you need
Sweep up the pieces of this broken love
As a token to remember me Don't cry, baby, 'cause you did nothin' wrong
Don't ask why this stone keeps rollin'
It's just goin', goin', goin'
Long gone, long gone Don't ask why this stone keeps rollin'
It's just goin', goin', goin'
Long gone, long gone
Yeah, I'm gone
