

Young Blood

Noah Kahan

Oh dear,
Oh dear,
I'm sorry that you grew up so soon
Cold year
And no high school parties
I've been drinking alone
Oh, I've been drinking alone
So...Don't fear,
Don't fear the warnings
They're bitterer than most
For years,
They're driving across the country
For empty seats at their shows
And they've been drinking alone
So...
Keep your time
Keep your mind
Keep humble
Start your life in the middle of the jungle You-oooo, you
Young Blood Rub your eyes
Be surprised
Keep hungry
Stay alive
Try to lose all of your money You-oooo, you
Young Blood
You-oooo, you
Young Blood
Young Blood
So when you're mad for no reason
At everything at once
And when you start overthinking
I'll be drinking at home
Oh, I'll be drinking at home
So...Keep your time
Keep your mind
Keep humble
Start your life in the middle of the jungle You-oooo, you
Young Blood Rub your eyes
Be surprised

Keep hungry
Stay alive
Try to lose all of your money You-oooo, you
Young Blood
You-oooo, you
Young Blood
Young Blood And if you want I can tell the truth
That this life takes a toll on you
I spend nights stitching up the loose threads of my soul
In the morning I'm bulletproof And if you want I can tell the truth
That this life takes a toll on you
I spend nights stitching up the loose threads of my soul
In the morning I'm bulletproof In the morning I'm bulletproof
So...Keep your time
Keep your mind
Keep humble
Start your life in the middle of the jungle You-oooo, you
Young Blood Rub your eyes
Be surprised
Keep hungry
Stay alive
Try to lose all of your money You-oooo, you
Young Blood
You-oooo, you
Young Blood
You-oooo, you
Young Blood Young Blood
