Mischievous Moon

Jill Barber

Anyone can tell
That I'm helpless to the spell
Cast by moonlightAnd so it does remain
My heart cannot contain
But still it tries in vainWhen suddenly the song
Is playing to my heart
When the clouds disappear
Every time you're near
To meMischievous moon
Sometimes I wonder were it not for the spell
That I've fallen under
That made me fall for you
Under the mischievous moonMischievous moon
How could I ever doubt you?
Just a thing of the brink
That I'd be on without you
As I sway and swoon
Under the mischievous moonCounting all the stars
And score of the mischievous moon
They fall like musical notes from the bars
Of an old familiar tuneThe moon is setting low
And I can feel its blow
Wherever I may be
As long as you are near
To me
