

It Ain't Pretty (But It's Beautiful)

Clay Walker

Driving home from work just yesterday impatiently waiting for the light to change
I noticed a homeless mom and her two kids
She reached out and lifted up a trash can lid
Her face lit up when she looked inside
And pulled out a broken armless doll knelt down and gave it to her smallest Child
And God you should have seen her smile It aint pretty, but its beautiful Life aint perfect, but its wonderful
Were all broken, but were loveable
It aint pretty, but its beautiful Got home and told my wife bout what Id seen
She grabbed her purse, took me by the hand and said come with me
We drove around until we found the three of them
I wondered who was blessing who when they got in
We bought them food and cloths and drove them to a toy story
And the little girl said I dont need a brand new doll as she hugged the broken armless one they found before she said this one needs me more She aint pretty, but shes beautiful
She aint perfect, but shes wonderful
She might be broken, but shes loveable
She aint pretty, but Shes beautiful Last night my wife and I talked till the sun came up About how we fuss and fight sometimes,
Say ugly things act so unkind
But we think God we always find our way back to love It aint pretty, but its beautiful
Our love aint perfect, but its wonderful
Were still learning to be loveable
It aint pretty, but its beautiful Were all learning to be loveable
Aint always pretty, but its beautiful
