

Fuck You (an Ode To No One)

Smashing Pumpkins

I'm never coming back
I'm never giving in
I'll never be the shine in your spit I disconnect the act
I disconnect the dots
I disconnect the me in me You're mistaken, it's you that's faking
Living and breathing and dying too
This message is for anyone who cares to hear a fool You can't bring me back
You can't bring me back
'Cause I gave it all back to you Through sacred alleys, the living wrecks, yeah
Wreaking havoc upon this world
The disenchanted, the romantics
The body, face and soul of you
Is gone down that deep black hole Destroy the mind, destroy the body
But you cannot destroy the heart
Destroy the mind, destroy the body
But you cannot destroy the heart And you, you make me so I need to disconnect
And you make it so real
I don't need your love to disconnect To run around kids in get-go cars
With Vaseline afterbirths and neon coughs
Galaxies full of nobodies
Giving us the farewell runarounds I took a virgin Mary ax to his sweet baby Jane
Lost my innocence to a no good girl
Scratch my face with anvil hands
And coil my tongue around a bumblebee mouth And I give it all back to you
I give it all back to you, yeah
I give it all back to you and for you No way, I don't need it
I don't need your love to disconnect
And you make it so real
I don't need your love to disconnect No way, no way, no way yeah yeah to disconnect
And you make it so real
I don't need your love to disconnect
No way, no way, no way yeah yeah to disconnect
Yeah
