THE KILLER

i'm still wondering how am gonna make it tonight yeah there's so much beautiful girls in the city but i'm still here alone looking for something i don't know sitting on the corner of a cafe shop suddenly she walk in aggressively hey baby what you looking for ?
she said ain't no time to waste there keep on hitting her toe on the ground hey i want a man who knows how to groove i made a move and turn my back oh yeah she said hey are you ready to die chorus killer on the dance floor oh ha so watch out on the move cos ain't no mess, ain't no regret till the music is over killer on the dance floor
take care of yourself and hey ya don't look back and get it right again watch me from head to toe and push me down oh yeah hold my tie and shout on me hey want you move on the dance floor i take a step and move ahead she slide back and raise ya head oh wa starting shaking up and down
i take a step and move ahead i slide back and raise her head yeah
got to move on, oh yeah
