

You'll Never Walk Alone

Nina Simone

When you walk through a storm
Hold your head up high
And don't be afraid
Of the darkAt the end of a storm
There's a golden sky
And the sweet silver song
Of a larkWalk on, through the wind
Walk on, through the rain
For your dreams be tossed and blownWalk on, walk on, with hope in your heart
And you'll never walk alone
You'll never walk alone
