

#OverNightBag

Mindless Behavior

Oooh, yeah
Come on over girl, don't take too long
(You know what it is)
When my ID show up on your screen at 12: 15 in the morning
(You know what it is)
And your roommates telling you it's late but I can't wait, really want you bad, you
(You know what it is)
Girl I can't sleep and I can't keep on going through these sites all night
Come lemme put this good in your life, cause we gone be awhile
So you better pack right, girl Your mascara, eyeliner, shower cap, hair curler, everything that you gon need
Your iPod cause you got that get boo'd up playlist
And we won't be getting no sleep, girl
Oh oh, and bring your work clothes, too
Cause you won't be coming back
Throw on a wife beat, uggs and sweats
And pack an overnight bag, yeah
Oh, pack an overnight bag tonight
Ooh pack an overnight bag (cause it's a long drive back)
Cause it's a long ride to your hood
So, girl I really wish you would, just pack an overnight bag You know what it is Got Netflix on the Xbox
Got Chinese, chill, blow a tree with me
(You know what it is)
Got the loud sack, and the gold pack
And you know that we gone use all three
(You know what it is)
Girl I can't sleep and I can't keep on scrolling through these sites all night
Come lemme put this good in your life, you're gone be awhile
So you better pack right
Your mascara, eyeliner, shower cap, hair curler, everything that you gon need
Your iPod cause you got that get boo'd up playlist
And we won't be getting no sleep, girl
Ooh, and bring your work clothes, too
Cause you won't be coming back
Throw on a wife beat, uggs and sweats Hey, pack an overnight bag, yeah
And pack an overnight bag tonight, yeah
Go pack an overnight bag (cause it's a long drive back)
Cause it's a long ride to your hood
And girl I really wish you would, just pack an overnight bag Nah, there won't be a reason
For you leaving 'till the morning comes

Your gonna need a night bag, so baby pack your night bag, yeahNah, there won't be a reason
For you leaving 'till the morning comes
Your gonna need a night bag, so baby pack your night bagYour mascara, eyeliner, shower cap, hair curler,
