Trainwreck

Classic Jack

Look at the mess you made
I pray to god you waste away
Every day that you're alive
Makes me feel so dead inside

You're so worthless
Far from perfect
Don't know why I ever cared

Always hopeless
Up for purchase
I think you were made from hell (x2)

It's hard to talk when you wanna scream
And suffocate when you wanna breathe
You'll never fly if you're clipping your wings
But you'll never be good enough for me

Look at the wreck you caused
I crave the day your black heart stops
Every day that I'm alive
Makes me want to fucking die

So imperfect
On the surface
Don't know what we ever shared

You deserve this
Go to church bitch
Maybe then you'll find some help

It's hard to talk when you wanna scream
And suffocate when you wanna breathe
You'll never fly if you're clipping your wings
But you'll never be good enough for me (x2)

You act like you're loved
Sent from heaven above
But you're worthless and cheap

Don't mean nothing to me

It's hard to talk when you wanna scream
And suffocate when you wanna breathe
You'll never fly if you're clipping your wings
But you'll never be good enough for me (x2)
