Tadayuki Song

Linea 77

Blow!!!
I've never heard
So many words and two lips moving so fast.
It 's not my world,
You need to escape and piss off from this world.
Cry...and so?
Cry...and so?
Cry...and so?
We wonder how to escape... fuck!
Try to know who's the best.
We are the mud of this world.
Try to know who's the best.
We are the mud of this world.
And you really think we need to stay alone and bleed?
Why do you watch me, tire me and say nothing,stupid?
Tell me who you are.
Words, skin, smells, pleasure.
We wonder how to escape... fuck!
Try to know who's the best.
We are the mud of this world.
Try to know who's the best.
We are the mud of this world.
Hang back the breath inside your mouth, my purple
And start to scream so loud,
'Cause you like me wonder how to escape from this world,
Stay close to me and let me fell your sweat it's necessary...
We wonder how to escape from this world.
We wonder how to escape from this world.
I need to escape.
I want to escape...fuck!
Try to know who's the best.
We are the mud of this world.
Try to know who's the best.
We are the mud of this fucking world
