Dislocate

36 Crazyfists

I taste the words you divide, want to cover up
Temporary lies
And I see how you pressed your skin on limb
How, how much thicker it is, how much thickerMark my words
Mark my wordsVoice comes through the mesh, a sign of safety
Temporary smile
Cross my heart, I'll protect my own
How much thicker it is, how much thickerMark my words
Mark my wordsDislocate yourself
Dislocate yourselfAnd this is enough poison for me, yeah
And this is enough, this is enough, this is enough, this isSpilling the guts, spilling the guts, spilling the guts, spillingMark my words
Mark my wordsDislocate yourself
Dislocate your, yourselfAnd this is enough poison for me, yeah
And this is enough, this is enough, this is enough, this isSpilling the guts, spilling the guts
