

Dislocate

36 Crazyfists

I taste the words you divide, want to cover up

Temporary lies

And I see how you pressed your skin on limb

How, how much thicker it is, how much thickerMark my words

Mark my wordsVoice comes through the mesh, a sign of safety

Temporary smile

Cross my heart, I'll protect my own

How much thicker it is, how much thickerMark my words

Mark my wordsDislocate yourself

Dislocate yourselfAnd this is enough poison for me, yeah

And this is enough, this is enough, this is enough, this isSpilling the guts, spilling the guts, spilling the guts, spillingMark my words

Mark my wordsDislocate yourself

Dislocate your, yourselfAnd this is enough poison for me, yeah

And this is enough, this is enough, this is enough, this isSpilling the guts, spilling the guts
