

Lightning Causes Madness

Kill Hannah

they've let us sleep for so long in their beds made of words and even their pillows appear a contradiction and who cares when this lightning starts stand outside we look to the sound and we've gone down because i've never heard it before and the crash of your bombs and leave the blank logic behind the smile that makes me shake makes me shake, makes me shake i know it's not for real
the lightning starts i stand outside stand outside spare my life it makes me shake
i stand outside
