

Sundown

Cemetery

our final stand
the last command
our journals final entry
you did so well
none left to tell about the damnation you brought on bring down the damned the blood is on your hands as the sun sets forever no saving grace all out of place
went down in a sea of neon
the desperate lust
in what we trust
now rests in the arms of failure
