Dollars

Primal Fear

I saw a Cadillac driving to the wishing well
A sweet illusion or a secret from hell
I was paralyzed, kinda hypnotized
And the time stood stillIf dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I'll be watching you
If dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I can see the truthThere's no one scared and nothing left
Was it my lucky day or am I a jerk?
Your shadow's still here, do you live in fear?
Is this superstition?If dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I'll be watching you
If dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I can see the truthYour shadow's still here, do you live in fear?
Is this superstition?If dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I'll be watching you
If dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I can see the truthIf dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I'll be watching you
If dollars were dirt, gold and honey
I can see the truthSee the truth
See the truth
