The Bird Song

Cleopatra

I don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love you
I hear them singing in the trees
And I know you're here with meI hear ya, I feel ya
I need, I need you here with me
I don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love youI love the way the stars glisten in your eyes
I love the way you say you love me so
I feel your presence with me when you're not around
And now you're gone I feel I knowWhenever the sun don't shine
You're there
Whenever the rain falls down
Whenever I'm feeling blue
You're with me
And now I have lost, I've foundI don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love you
I hear the singing in the trees
And I know you're here with meI hear ya, I feel ya
I need, I need you here with me
I don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love youI love the way the sun brightens up your life
I love the way you done the same for me
I hear you calling baby, but when I look around
You're not thereAnd now you're gone I feel that I know
Whenever the sun don't shine you're there
Whenever the rain falls down
Whenever I'm feeling blue
You're with me
And now I have lost, I've foundI don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love you
I hear the singing in the trees
And I know you're here with meI hear ya, I feel ya
I need, I need you here with me
I don't know the bird song but I know
I don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love youI don't know the bird song but I know
And I know you're here with me
I hear the singing in the trees
I need you here withI don't know the bird song but I know

Whenever the sun don't shine you're there
Whenever the rain falls down
Whenever I'm feeling blue
You're with me
And now I have lost, I've foundI don't know the bird song but I know
I hear them singing in the trees
I don't know the bird song but I know
I don't know the bird song but I knowI don't know the bird song but I know
I know that I love you
I don't know the bird song but I know
And I know you're here with me
