Destructo Spin

Between the Buried and Me

King Kong illusion... destrction!
Crumble this place of existence.
King Kong illusion... destrction!
Crumble this place of existence.
Let's bow down to the king of the masculine,
the macho redneck lored.
Killing innocent for the revenge of the innocent...
turning this country into shit.
Just another rich white game.
Bomb the world... Ice for these cramped hands.
Ice for these cramped hands.
Ice for these cramped hands.
Ice for these cramped hands.
This controller is designed poorly and the blood keeps staining my suit.
This plasma screen shows me stutter
but technology will prove everyone wrong.
Ego trip headfuck.
I've been hired for destruction.
Ego trip headfuck.
I've been hired for destruction.
The King Kong of the century has been molded by me.
The King Kong of the century has been molded by me.
I eading them blindly into brainwashed blood lands,
the King Kong of the century has been molded by me.
Prove my strength.
Peer pressure of a nation,
I eading them blindly into brainwashed blood lands,
I've been hired for destruction.
I have to prove my strength.
Peer pressure of a nation, selfish action speak.
Kidding myself.
Do I really care or worry about any of this?
My conscious controls me,
but deep down I don't think any of this makes me love sleep.
Once again I prove my confusion.
Mordecai flies once again.
Will he ever truly stay gone?
Once again I prove my confusion.
Mordecai flies once again.
