

Secrets Don't Make Friends

Keepsake Summer

This place is a bloodbath
And won't be taken alive
We stand alone
Under fictitious skies
You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise
You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise
Our hearts beat strong
Under fictitious skies
You were always my enemy
You suck the life out of me
Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall
You were my compass
Leading me to nowhere fast
Promises were lonely roads
I followed you down like a map
You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise
You were always my enemy
And carefully crafted my demise
Our hearts beat strong
under fictitious skies
You were always my enemy
You suck the life out of me
Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall
Fuck you
Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make friends
Secrets don't make
Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me

Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall
Your words are deadly weapons
Killing me, destroying me
Your words are deadly weapons
Scatter my brains across the wall
Secrets don't make friends
