

Close to the Distance

All Faces Down

awakened from the darkness we do step into the light distance has never been so near, we set free what's on our mind this year is the beginning and the era has begun this moment you better keep in mind we're All Faces Down hey, we are the bullet hey, you are the wall hey, we're breaking through we are All Faces Down

we do not know where our ways are leading to
there is a fusion between AFD and you it's a change that we all feel so true it's time to think of changes, have you done everything right? if yes, why are you still afraid of the future of your life its time to start believing that you can always reach the sky and believe us you are not alone, All Faces Down is by your side watch the fire in our eyes

but we will go on as we do we won't give in, we mess with the best, yeah we won't give in, we mess with the best, right now
