

Rock This House

B.B. King

Why don't you come on down
Let me tell you what I've got now
Baby, please come on down
Let me tell you what I've got now
I've got the hot-rocking blues
Everybody's been talking about
We're gonna start after midnight
Rock until the break of dawn
Gonna start after midnight
Rock until the break of dawn
You don't have to be afraid
'Cause your daddy don't do you no harm

[Chorus]

We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house tonight

She's a tall blinking woman
Man she's built for speed
She's a tall blinking woman
Man she's built for speed
I'm crazy about the woman
'Cause she's got just what I need

[Chorus]

We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house tonight

You can set up a table
Most anything she likes
You can set up a table
Most anything she likes
My baby's in town

You know we're gonna rock tonight

[Chorus]

We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house tonight

[Chorus]

We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house
We're gonna rock, rock this house tonight
