Scatterbrain

Treble Charger

Reasoning is wrong aside from anything that's rightly named
Deniably insane, so lost, you're torn away
Your sympathy is strange, it's so unlike you still to be the same
Fight the urge to change and leave another dayIt's not hard, it's not so appealing
To play it straight ahead
It doesn't make it trueYou're throwing your charm away
You turned into a scatterbrain
I don't know why, I don't know whyYou're telling me it's all the same
By throwing all your charm away
Don't turn into a scatterbrain
I don't know why, I don't know whyYou're telling me it's all the same
By throwing your charm away
Don't turn into a scatterbrain
I don't know why, I don't know why, don't ask me whyLately you've been hard to find
You're hiding from what's left behind
You're falling into habits I don't understand
Crazy as it seems, I'm not sure it's what I don't believe
Afraid the day is gone before you start again
