

Rose of Sharyn

Killswitch Engage

Numb, we're broken, here I stand alone
Wondering what were the last words I said to you
Hoping, praying that I'll find a way to turn back time
Can I turn back time? What would I give to behold
The smile the face of love
You never left me the rising sun
Will always speak your name Numb and broken, here I stand alone
Wonderin' what were the last words I said to you
It won't be long, we'll meet again Rock, what would I give to behold
The smile, the face of love
You never left me the rising sun
Will always speak your name It won't be long, we'll meet again
Your memory is never passing
It won't be long, we'll meet again
My love for you is everlasting I mourn for those who never knew you
I mourn for those who never knew you It won't be long, we'll meet again
Your memory is never passing
It won't be long, we'll meet again
My love for you is everlasting It won't be long, we'll meet again
It won't be long, we'll meet again
It won't be long, we'll meet again
It won't be long, we'll meet again
