Hunger

Sam Sure

Gonna call when I make it home
So bored when Iâ€™m on my own
Because of you, only for you
My heartâ€™s beating upon my sleeve
Tryna figure out if you mean the things you do
Only if youâ€™re here
And I know you canâ€™t even think right now
And advice is something I can live without Alone, alone
And you should hold your breath from behind your text
To second guess all the things that run around my head
No more, no less
Than chemicals and pheromones
Oh hell no

Only for you
Only for you
Only for you

It was a question, not an accusation
The play on words is to change your face
And I was running like I do
Trying to teach you things you already knew
Why do I interrupt
Make you feel youâ€™re not enough
If I make you feel like I want more
Thatâ€™s not the way I feel at all

When it comes to you
When it comes to us
When it comes to you
When it comes to us

Only for you
Only for you
Only for you
Only for you
Only for you
Only for you
Only for you
