Either Way

Jeff Bridges

Lookin' down that highway far as I can see
Where I left so much of me
It's gone, gone, gone
It's how it has to be
Went in the ditch goin' 95
I can't believe that I walked away alive
I was going too fast
In the breakdown lane
I may be walkin', I may be walkin'
I'll get there just the same
The woman I love, she never let me down
Never said that my dream could not be found
I had to burn before I could learn
She let me go, she let me go
She let me return
This is the place where I was meant to be
Movin' on with you next to me
And when that highway comes to a 't'
Either way is a mystery
Lookin' down that highway far as I can see
Where I left so much of me
It's gone, gone, gone
It's how it has to be
