

Don't Call It A Comeback

Motion City Soundtrack

We don't like endless cycles
Are take is more than meets the eye
That's our answer yeah that's our answer
'cause we don't care at all Don't call it a comeback no
This witness was injured and overthrown away
This time it's the last dance so come on
By will alone we set our minds in motion Long winded the progress oh
Setback after setback the need to play remains
Call it what you will somehow I know you will
And by will alone we set our minds in motion I see that part of this has something to do with mediocre memory
This take is harder than the old and new combined
Head buried attack these manic men
Red glares from the color of outstretched hands
Get it higher
