

Somebody Calling

Robin Trower

Somebody calling
calling my name somebody walking over my grave I was back in the arms of my baby
I was safe in the arms of a dream
I was tasting the charms of my lady
And I woke up, do you know what I mean? Somebody's sighing sighing for me somebody crying for me I was back in the arms of my baby
I was safe in the arms of a dream
I was tasting the charms of my lady
And I woke up, do you know what I mean?
