

Never Bought It

Dinosaur Jr.

Well, I figured something out
Should I tell you what about?
Let's just say I've done my time
And it showed her everyday
Be a tantrum that gets paid
Another tale slips your mind
So why, you, me, now
I believed you every day
And now suddenly I see it
And not just me [Incomprehensible] away
Takes a lot just to relieve me
So why, you, me, now
It's not convenient any time
To just rip that from my mind
'Cause you gonna give me something fine
But you can follow up it's gone
Can't get upset about this song
If you don't wanna give me something fine
Give me, give me, give me all
[Incomprehensible], can't stand it anymore
I believed you every day
And now suddenly I see it
And not just me [Incomprehensible] away
Never really bought my deal
And every wonder isn't real
Yours ain't the only way to feel
So why, you, me, now
