Holiday

Chris Young

I don't need to pack a bag
I don't need a travel agent
Islands look cool on a map
But can't beat my location'Cause when you smile at me that's all the sunshine I need
Any place, any time, any day of the weekYou make me wanna' make a margarita
You make me wanna' put on my shades
You take me on a trip around the world
Don't need to hop a plane
When I'm with ya' girl it's like I'm on vacay'
I guess what I'm trying to say
You make every day like a holiday
You make every day like a holiday
When I've got you in my arms
I'm a thousands miles away
From any worries in the world
Baby all of that can wait
Cause swaying to some music while I look in your eyes
It's pretty easy to see that I'm in paradiseYou make me wanna' make a margarita
You make me wanna' put on my shades
You take me on a trip around the world
Don't need to hop a plane
When I'm with ya' girl it's like I'm on vacay'
I guess what I'm trying to say
You make every day like a holiday
A holiday babyEverybody's got a photo
Of their favorite view
And you can see mine in every picture of you
You make me wanna' make a margarita
You make me wanna' put on my shades
You take me on a trip around the world
Don't need to hop a plane
When I'm with ya' girl it's like I'm on vacay'
I guess what I'm trying to say
You make every day like a holiday
Yeah a holiday baby
