The shape of a name

Rabia Sorda

You gave yourself a name
A name no one knows
You start to get old
'cause nothing's what it wasYou can't understand where it all is gonna end
It doesn't matter if it's right or wrong
You just feel it breaks down in your old
Dirty town, don't ask if it's right or wrongYou gave yourself a name
A name to give your life
You try to run away
To leave all behind
So why there's no shelter?
So what's what you can't find?
You say, I'm looking for my myself
Before I lose my mindYou can't understand where it all is gonna end
It doesn't matter if it's right or wrong
You just feel it breaks down in your old
Dirty town, don't ask if it's right or wrong
