

Ophelia

On Thorns I Lay

Sometimes were two, were two and was like one,
One and so mnay together, among capids and angels, we will fly forever...

I have a mystic relation with the moon

Tonight, I will sprink moondust only for you...

The biggest distance is the time so live for the moment

I am afraid the same as you but I am dreaming...

We are hunting each other into the fragrant valley of sensations and illusions

So let your mind free...
