Where's My Angel

Metro Station

Angel soBreak down, I can see you're upset
So high but I didn't help it
I wish I could just forget you
Up now, heart beats racing
One touch, now I'm faking
This time, there's no escaping youWhere's my angel? Go on and take my life
Where's my angel? I need someone here tonight
Where's my angel? Go on and take my life
Where's my angel? I need someone here tonightSo cold but you have my body
One kiss and this is gonna haunt me
My God, you look so lovely, girl
Heart's gone, tonight is your chance
You trade love for a little romance
Too late, this will be the last dance, girlWhere's my angel? Go on and take my life
Where's my angel? I need someone here tonight
Where's my angel? Go on and take my life
Where's my angel? I need someone here tonightYou say you want it
You love me then thought it
You're breaking my heart
And you're taking me downYou say you want it
You love me then thought it
You're breaking my heart
And you're taking me downWhere's my angel? Go on and take my life
Where's my angel? I need someone here tonight
Where's my angel? Go on and take my life
Where's my angel? I need someone here tonightWhere's my angel?
Where is she? Where is she?
Where's my angel?
Where is she?
Where's my angel? Where's my angel?
Where's my angel? Where's my angel?
