

God Loves Only You (Live and Acoustic)

Skunk Anansie

His men have taken all the jewels you gave him
Your sweatin', shakin' 'cause your god loves only you I am one again, I am one again
I am born again, I am born again
Your eyes shine brighter, he takes you higher The dawn is breaking over girls half naked
Your soul is taken 'cause your god loves only you I am one again, I am one again
I am born again, I am born again
Your eyes shine brighter, he takes you higher
