Fluvanna

Inhale Exhale

Find me somebody who sees the world
As they should
Give yourself a chance instead of giving upDepart from your words
Depart from your lies
Lies, lies, lies are all you have
Lies, lies, lies are all you haveI was born to die
I was born to dieI took what you said to heart
And knew that you meant it
I took what you said to heart
Believe me I doSpare me just this once
From hearing you flap your lip
Are you a man, someone they call a saint
Oh God, a child with this mouth
Where will it end?Depart from your words
Depart from your lies
Lies, lies, lies are all you have
Lies, lies, lies are all you haveI was born to die
I was born to dieI took what you said to heart
And knew that you meant it
I took what you said to heart
Believe me I doI was born to die
I was born to dieI took what you said to heart
And knew that you meant it
I took what you said to heart
Believe me I do
