

Lullaby

Beau

Warm enough to save a coutry frozen by the sea
Your heart is a goldmine
Larger than me
It's a ghostly feeling when you open your arms and light rings on
Like an alarmIt wakes me up in the middle of the night
Filling my dreams with beams of light
It wakes me up in the middle ofthe night
Filling my dreams with beams of light
Warm enough to melt in the sky
With a glimpse of your blue pale eyes
Crawling through me like vines
And I don't mind the feeling of time passing by
Just as long as you are closer
To my sideIt wakes me up in the middle ofthe night
Filling my dreams with beams of light
It wakes me up in the middle ofthe night
Filling my dreams with beams of light
There's not a thing in this world
That could keep me away
From you
I'm as strong as a cloud
Invisible now
Push right throughLa la la ...
