how is it going SanFrancisco thank you for coming SanFrancisco
once somebody gonna ask me we in a fog friendly lesbbian bar or lesbian friendly dog bar doesn't matter sanfransisco have a good time I know you gotta choices what you do with your free time thanks for comming to see uncle barbeque tells dumb dumb stories a little while so let's go spend a copples yarns while get onto our fun carfully life styles ahha say a lot of comedy comes from shared experience and things we can relate to keeping that in mind, anybody else in here is getting so drunk last month near to call cab to take you to wendy's this cowboy right maybe cowboy right there yeah
that is special point you are in mid thirties and there is a drinking responsibly and crying for help junst kinda turn into the same thing real saturday successful night home alone i want those spicy noggot you too drunk to drive i'll call a cab because you deserve it.
i'm doing the right thing, how come steal feel sad?
thats what i did, i called a cab, and another grown man drove me to my house. fo money, so its his job and i got to my house and i jumped in his cab and i said this dont do what i did when you need a cab i just jumped in and i said "we're going on an adventure" and thats just 80 dollars on the meter right away i dont want to be a toer guy, thats 80 box, thats a pitterpan tax is what that is thats the same amount of money if someone jump in and say take me to the neverland 80 box, you smell like you probably gonna bar from here so start 80, no matter where you go and so we drove to the wendy's and i made hime drive me yo the drivethrought because i did not trust him not to leave me there that was fare you suspicious to me i suspicious to him, it was fare play
