Weird Boy Next Door

The Muffs

A little weirdo wasted
Sitting in a bedroom
At the home of Mommy
And never get a job
He's feeling oh so angsty, and never lift a finger
Only thinks of one thing, that's about himselfHe's yelling for no reason
Soaking in the gutter
Someone should shake him, and throw him in the sea
He's an empty vessel, made of cotton candy
Nobody knows why he's such a dud
OOOAAAHHHHe's a boy next door, what a bore
Do nothing what he's living for
He's a boy next door, what a bore
Nasty keep away from him
WOOOAAAHHHForget about him, and then you hear him
Hitting our garage door, with a baseball bat
Yeah he's like a caveman, but he's not as clever
In fact he's dumber, then a common rat
OOOAAAHHHHe's a boy next door, what a bore
And no smarter than a living floor
He's a boy next door, what a bore
Nasty keep away from him
OOOAAAHHHSuper-weirdo will you ever go away?
The weirdo honestly, no-one cares, you're odd
WOOOAAHHHA little weirdo wasted
Sitting in a bedroom
At the home of Mommy
And never get a job
He's feeling oh so angsty, and never lift a finger
Only thinks of one thing, that's about himselfHe's yelling for no reason
Soaking in the gutter
Someone should shake him, and throw him in the sea
He's an empty vessel, made of cotton candy
Nobody knows why he's such a dud
OOOAAAHHe's a boy next door, what a bore
Do nothing what he's living for
He's a boy next door, what a bore
Nasty keep away from him
WOOOAAAHHH
