

Betty's Got a Bass Boat

Pam Tillis

Now Betty was your average ordinary girl
Never wanted very much out of this world
Just an occasional dinner and twirl, from a regular guy
So Betty sat up one lonely night
Trying to figure out what a man might be like
Then like a bolt right out of the blue, she got herself a plan
Oh Betty's got a bass boat, Betty's got a truck
All of a sudden things are looking up
She's the most popular girl in town
Since she got a new camper and a huntin' hound
Might be coincidental, oh you just might never know
Oh, but things sure got a lot better since Betty got a bass boat
Now lately getting a date isn't all that hard
There's a half a dozen bubba's fightin' in the yard
She won 'em over with her southern charm and a satellite dish
Now Betty can't believe her popularity
She's thinkin' 'bout marketing her recipe
So ironic and the funny thing is, she never even liked to fish
Oh Betty's got a bass boat, Betty's got a truck
All of a sudden things are looking up
She's the most popular girl in town
Since she got a new camper and a huntin' hound
Might be coincidental, oh you just might never know
Oh, but things sure got a lot better since Betty got a bass boat
She's got bowling shoes, she can't lose
She's got those boys who's just blowin' their fuse
She's got a big screen, she's in the in scene
They're even gonna make her strawberry queen
Oh Betty's got a bass boat, Betty's got a truck
All of a sudden things are looking up
She's the most popular girl in town
Since she got a new camper and a huntin' hound
Might be coincidental, oh you just don't really know
Oh, but things sure got a lot better since Betty got Things sure got a lot better since Betty got a bass boat
Hey yeah, get it Betty, oh you're gonna go
Bye bye Betty, one more y'all
