(I Am) Not Afraid Anymore

Twila Paris

I said I belonged to You
But in a secret room, I kept a secret list
I said, "Anything for You"
"Anything but this, anything but this"You knew it all along
You knew it very well
You knew the sturdy walls I hid behind
Were nothing but a prison cellI am not afraid anymore
You have opened all the windows
Opened all the doorsI am not afraid anymore
I feel the wind of freedom
Like I never did beforeThe light is filling up the corners
Dancing on the floor
I am not afraid anymoreYou have always been the same
I ran away from You, I ran away from You
Every time You called my name
I tried to hide the truth, I tried to hide the truthYou knew it all along
You knew it very well
You knew the more I covered up my heart
The more I didn't know myselfI am not afraid anymore
You have opened all the windows
Opened all the doorsI am not afraid anymore
I feel the wind of freedom
Like I never did beforeThe light is filling up the corners
Dancing on the floor
I am not afraid anymoreNo room for fear
No room, no room
No room for fear
Perfect love is living hereI am not afraid anymore
You have opened all the windows
Opened all the doorsI am not afraid anymore
I feel the wind of freedom
Like I never did beforeThe light is filling up the corners
Dancing on the floor
I am not afraid anymoreI am not afraid anymore
I am not afraid anymore
